POLICE SUBDUED WILD MOB

Sensational Scene Over Bier of Employee of Defunct Bank

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 11.—While the coroner was holding an inquest this morning over the body of Frank Kowalski, teller of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank who committed suicide last night, a crowd of angry foreign men and women gathered about the house and created a demonstration.

A Polish man, who made entry to the house hurled enathemas at the family, shook his fist at the body and cursed the memory of the young man.

The crowd tore the wreaths of crepe from the door and crushed them in the gutter.

The excitement was great and was nearly a riot when the police subdued the crowd with clubs.

Kowalski was driven to suicide by the taunts of his neighbors who thought he should have warned them.

Examiner Jones says there is no evidence that he had the slightest knowledge of conditions.

A Gang of Forgers

Sergeant Shippy this morning sent detectives to persuade the directors of the defunct Milwaukee avenue bank to come in for examination. He declares that Stensland was at the head of the gang of forgers and that each is equally guilty.

REGIMENT FIRES
ON GRAND DUKE

Effort Made to Assassinate
Official While at Rifle Practice

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 11.—Grand Duke Nicholas narrowly escaped assassination yesterday at the hands of the imperial guards at Camp Krasnoyesele.

The grand duke was conducting maneuvers, putting the troops through blank firing practice, when bullets hissed about his head. Neither the horse nor rider were touched. He commanded them to cease firing and the regiment from which the firing came was marched to quarters and a number of arrests were made.

The accident theory is scouted. It caused an immediate change in the plans of the emperor who planned to spend a week at camp.

Calls Czar a Liar

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 11.—The Heyden letter, printed in the Novoe Vremya today, gives the lie direct to the czar in connection with the recent attempt of Stolypin to form a cabinet.

Heyden says he and his associates refused to enter the cabinet because their plans for reform were rejected, and Stolypin demanded they become bureaucrats.

The letter is bold and frank and created a sensation declaring the czar is deliberately trying to regain a full autocracy and will only admit as his advisors those favoring despotic rule.

The general impression is that in driving Heyden's party from him the czar has done the omst in his power to hasten a crisis.

Two regiments have notified their officers that it will be useless to order them to shoot the peasants they have been sent to subdue. Gen. Classoff will hasten to camp at Vologda to subdue mutineers, but unsuccessful men are repeating to him their intentions.

SNEAKING UP ON 'EM.

STORY OF INDICT-MENT OF THE STANDARD

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 10.—For the first time in its long career the Standard Oil company has been indicted by a federal grand jury.

It was a good beginning that was made by the special grand jury here when, after an investigation lasting three hours and a half, it returned an indictment containing nineteen counts charging the corporation with accepting rebates from the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern railroad.

The penalty, if conviction follows, may be $20,000 on each count, or a total of $380,000 in fines, while the total amount of rebates received is the comparatively insignificant sum of $8,500.

No individuals were indicted, neither was the railroad company that gave the rebates indicted at this time, but the grand jury has not completed its work yet, and this first indictment is expected to be followed by a long list of others, both by this jury and the one that follows next week. It is manifest, and much stress was laid upon this point by the government attorneys, that the rebates could not have been received without their having been paid by some one. The indictment says that they were received from the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern road, and therefore it is extremely probable that indictments will be returned against the railroad company.

It is also said to be not improbable that some individuals both of the railroad and the Standard Oil company will be indicted. There is some question, for instance, whether indictments may not be returned against Capt. G. J. Grammer, vice president of the New York Central lines, the man who is responsible for the acts of the freight department of the Lake Shore road.

Assistant District Attorney Robert W. Childs conducted the examination, assisted by District Attorney J. J. Sullivan of Cleveland, and District Attorney C. H. Morrison of Chicago.

The indictment alleges that by the system of granting the Standard Oil company rebates or concessions, that corporation benefited to the extent of $8,506 between August, 1903, and February, 1905. Each count sets up a rebate of between $300 and $500 a month which the Standard Oil company received by reason of the fact that the Lake Shore Railroad company did not enforce from it the payment of storage charges on its products at the warehouse of the railroad at Eighteenth street, Chicago.

It is set up that the railroad had in its published tariffs, which are supposed to be the rates governing all shipments, the rates which were applicable to petroleum and its products, and in these rates it was specified that at Chicago there was a charge of 5 cents a ton per day after the property was held by the common carrier for more than forty-eight hours after its arrival.

The indictment then goes on to relate:

And the grand jurors aforesaid, further present that during the month of August, 1903, 8,019 tons of petroleum and by-products were transported from Whiting, Ind., to Chicago, consigned to the Standard Oil company, and during the last named month was held in storage by the said common carrier, and before the removal of the said property storage charges of $400.95 lawfully accrued to the said common carrier under its tariffs, and should thereupon have been there collected from the Standard Oil company.

And the grand jurors aforesaid do further present, that on the said first day of September, 1903, at Chicago, said storage charges having accrued to the said common carrier, the said Standard Oil company unlawfully did accept and receive from the said common carrier an unlawful rebate and concession in the shape of a cancellation of the said debt and liability.

When the indictment was returned Judge Bethea fixed the bonds of the indicted corporation at $25,000. The Standard Oil company was not represented in court, and the bonds have not yet been filed. John S. Miller has been engaged to defend the oil company, and he is out of the city at present, but it is expected that he will return immediately.

This morning the grand jury will resume its investigation at 9:30 and H. C. Barlow, formerly president of a railroad controlled by the Standard Oil company, will be the first witnesses.

Clerk T. C. MacMillan late in the afternoon drew the names of twenty-three men for the next federal grand jury. They are:

Andrew Anderson, Helmer, Ill.; Henry Barber, Sheridan; R. J. Bassett, Evanston; John L. Becker, Sycamore; C. H. Beely, 399 Ontario street; S. M. Butts, Harvard; F. C. Cannon, Geneva; T. A. Casey, Geneva; J. A. Clayton, Geneva; E. C. Delvitt, Annex; Benjamin Dodson, Geneva; J. F. Dore, La Grange; W. I. Hatch, Plano; Henry Rogers, Waukegan; George Ruchty, Fullersburg; A. L. Schultz, Plano; Frank Seward, Marengo; S. M. Simmons, Woodstock; M. A. Skinner, Plattville; S. C. Sleezer, Yorkville; M. E. Stanger, Downer's Grove; N. W. Tomblin, Aurora; Andrew Walsh, Sugar Grove.

This jury will assemble next week, it is expected.

WANT ONLY LARGE KEGS FOR BEER

Wisconsin Brewers Think it Would be Profitable and Wise

Wisconsin likes beer. It likes it in barrels instead of in kegs.

So in order to come to the demand the Wisconsin Brewers' association has just about decided to discontinue the sale of small kegs of beer and to adopt larger vehicles in which to transport their product from the brewery to the consumer.

C. F. Michel has returned from Milwaukee, where this subject was discussed by the Wisconsin association. The contention, if there be one, is that the consumption of large orders is so much greater than the small ones that it will be unnecessary to get out "eights" and "quarters" in the future.

The brewers will definitely decide the question at a later date.

BUSINESS RUSHING ON MILWAUKEE
ROAD

Business for the next ten days will be rushing on the Milwaukee road. Passenger trade has already begun to swell and the greatest caution is being taken by all trainmen to prevent accidents.

The La Crosse & Southeastern brought fifty people into the city yesterday who will go to the G. A. R. encampment at Minneapolis.

About sixty came in on the Dubuque division of the Milwaukee road enroute to the same place.

Tomorrow the Milwaukee road expects to run about seven or more sections of No. 1 which arrives here usually about 3 o'clock.

On account of the central location of the encampment it is expected to be one of the largest in the history of the country.

Freighter Knocks Span of Great Duluth Bridge
Into Channels

(Scripps-McRae Dispatch.)
DULUTH, Minn., Aug. 11.—The steamer Troy, a freighter, collided with a span of the interstate bridge today and precipitated it into the channels on either side of the center pier. Navigation to and from the upper harbor, which is the most active portion of the head of the lakes, is blocked.

It is impossible for even tugs to pass. Traffic between Duluth and Superior is cut off.

The Great Northern owns the bridge, which is one of the longest draw spans in the world.

Forty steamers in the upper harbor are cut off from the lake.

INJURED AT SALEM

R. J. Ryan was seriously injured in a runaway accident on the West Salem fair grounds. He was sitting in a rig watching some horses work out and his horses became frightened and threw him out of the buggy bruising him badly and it is thought giving him internal injuries.

WORK ON CALE-DONIA STREET

Work on Caledonia street, where the brick pavement is to be put in is progressing rapidly although no cement has been laid as yet.

The street car company is putting in large rails which weigh about 740 pounds each and are almost twice as large as the old ones.

The catch basins at the corner of Windsor and Caledonia streets where the artesian well is to be put in, are to be changed so that the well will not be ready for use for some time.

"Q" ENGINE MAKES FAST
TEST TRIP TO ST. PAUL

Railroad Men on Burlington do not Believe Erie Locomotive Will be Able to Beat it

As was predicted by railroad men yesterday, the "Q" engine which went out on another test trip for St. Paul with the tonnage of 30,056, made the distance to St. Paul in less than eight hours. The first trip took eight hours and twenty minutes, while the last one only took seven hours and forty-three minutes and they were delayed about half an hour at Bay City where they were blocked by a freight train.

The engine crew were John Boyer and Irwin.

The Erie engine also under test, will leave for St. Paul today and the outcome of the test is looked forward to with much interest.

FREEMAN ASSAULTED
W. J. BOYD

Lured Him Into Ry.
Yards at Night

BEAT HIM WITH A CLUB

Old, Half-Blind Man Gives Police Description
Arrest Freeman

For luring "Blind Billy" Boyd into the Milwaukee railroad yards, robbing him of $2 and beating him almost to death with a club, John H. Freeman, aged 23, of the North side, was today sentenced to six years at the state penitentiary at Waupun, after pleading guilty before Judge Fruit.

Freeman is a young man who has resided with his widowed mother on Carr street on the north side. He had been employed for some time at the can factory and had been in trouble several times, having been arrested heretofore for being drunk and disorderly, resisting an officer and for fighting.

A couple of days ago Freeman met W. J. Boyd and asked him to take a walk down the Milwaukee yard tracks where they could lie down and rest for a while. Boyd, whose home is at Black River Falls and who is a cement salesman, is nearly blind, and wears blue glasses, being unable to see well.

Boyd started down the tracks with Freeman, walking until they reached a point just north of the Black river bridge. Here Freeman suddenly turned on Boyd and demanded his money. When Boyd showed resistance Freeman attacked him with the club, felling him to the ground, and continuing to beat him about the head after he had fallen and was helpless. He then

SUMMER PARTIES AT HOKAH

Lake Como, Hokah, seems to be having its usual crowd of summer visitors. Crow cottage is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Milo White of Champaign, Minn. Mr. C. A. Lyon of Chicago is spending his annual vacation on the lake. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rowland and family are spending the week at Lake View.

A jolly crowd of young women are occupying Twin Oaks Lodge. They are the Misses Louise Rigger, Katherine Rigger, Anna Toeller, and Rose Roth of La Crosse. The Misses Marie Flynn and Sophie Hagerman of Mauston, and Miss Tillie Roth of West Salem.

The Misses Lillian Dave, Myrtle Peck, Effie McKinley, Grace and Irene Roberts, Messrs. Earl Mengel and Jesse Roberts are breaking camp and will return to their homes at Bangor. A new canoe is on the lake this week and the campers enjoy seeing its inexperienced riders upset. Only five have occurred up to date, and those not of a serious nature.

AT THE COUNTRY CLUB

Miss Nannie Funk entertained a number of young people Wednesday evening at the Country Club. The guests were attired in juvenile costumes, taking the parts of their younger brothers and sisters in a very interesting manner. A feature of the entertainment was a corn roast on the lawn, which novelty all enjoyed. The company was in honor of Miss Helen Strout, of Toronto, Can. The guests were the Misses Emma and Louise Gund, Eleanor Marston, Mabel West, Grace and Ruth Heath, Viola Doerflinger, Louise Wells, Olga Candrian, Messrs. Robert and Stanley Gordon, Horace and Alex Holley, Lloyd Lamb, Russell James, Earl Pryor, Matt Hopley, George Garrett, and Edward Burns.

CAMPING PARTIES

A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Willoughby, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Brownell, Mrs. W. H. Robbins, Miss Margaret Barnes of Summit, N. J., and Miss Ida Barnes of Utica, N. Y., will leave here Monday for Fairmont, Minn., where they have taken a cottage, Interlaken, for a couple of weeks. This is a beautiful place in which to spend a few weeks and has all the advantages of a larger resort without the discomforts. The fishing, boating and bathing facilities are excellent, while the cottages are pleasant, neat and commodious.

AFTERNOON COMPANIES

Mrs. S. Y. Hyde entertained at a company this afternoon for her daughter, Rebecca Thompson of Cascade, Locks, Ore. A delightful time was enjoyed by the young people. Those invited were: Josephine and Elsie Traer, Margery Gordon, Jeanette Hankerson, Marie Paul, Gretchen Salzer, Irene and Helen Esch, Dorothy Usher, Laura Cunningham, Jeanette Anderson, Mar Evans, Dorothy and Ellen Hixon, Helen Dyson, Chloe Morse, Frances Egbert, Alice Willoughby, Charlotte and Julia Coleman, Helen Harrison, Florence Seefeld and Harriet Putnam.

Mrs. J. J. Fruit entertained about thirty ladies at a delightful coffee Wednesday afternoon at her home on Thirteenth street.

Mrs. Eugene Gleason entertained the Wednesday card club this week.

TROLLEY RIDE AND SUPPER

Mrs. Macy C. Jones gave a trolley ride followed by a supper on the lawn Thursday. The invited guests were: Mesdames Partridge, Post, Rand, S. Smith, M. Smith, Taylor, D. B. Weide, E. McLaughlin, W. P. Long, J. E. Wilson, J. H. Bullock, F. A. Morley, W. P. Rupp, G. W. Lucke, Hawks, Callahan, Tarbox, W. J. Turner, B. E. Bice, S. A. Shinel, L. Statham, F. A. Hartwell, T. H. Miller, M. Bates, T. C. Bliss, F. W. Collier, M. M. Mathews, Houck, F. C. Suiter, T. H. Lavake, Jameson, Geo. Marvin, A. A. Bentley, C. C. Looney, D. G. Whyte, E. R. Cronon, L. Lavague, F. H. Pope, J. L. Dodge, Schadduck, Grouse, N. Donaldson, C. J. Crosby, Wm. Duncan, C. Caseburg, Paul Mahoney, Peter Valier, Andrew Nevins, E. W. Parker, B. Miller, H. Dancher, A. C. Millington, the Misses Hannah Danchertson, Cora Frey, Anna Kinnear, Helen Lavake, Ida and Mayme May.

AT THE COUNTRY CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Heath entertained at a dancing party Wednesday in honor of the birthday of their daughter, Grace Heath. The decorations were red dalias and shower of gold. A large birthday cake graced the center of the table surmounted with the requisite number of blazing red tapers. Dana furnished the music. There were about fifty present.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Anderson entertained at a dancing party for their daughters, Miss Hattie and Miss Mary Anderson, and their guest, Henry Wright of Chicago. Kreutz's orchestra furnished the music.

The Misses Florence and Louise Easton entertained at a luncheon Friday at the club. About thirty guests were present.

MANY PEOPLE HAVE CATARRH OF KIDNEYS AND DON'T KNOW IT.

Backache, a Warning Symptom of Kidney Trouble.

Pe-ru-na Is Invaluable in Such Cases.

Prominent Persons Who Have Been Cured.

Mr. J. Blyler, 1505 Ohio street, Des Moines, Ia., writes:
"I wish to state my appreciation of your excellent remedy.
"I have always enjoyed excellent health, except frequent and painful attacks of bladder trouble, which doctors failed to relieve or cure.
"Upon recommendation I used Peruna to my utter satisfaction, not having had an attack now for four or five years."
—J. Blyler.

Mr. Leopold Brandl, 246 Bleeker street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:
"I was sick three months with catarrh of the kidneys and lungs. I was treated by my home physician and relieved to some extent, but after I had worked again for two weeks, my old suffering—backache and pains in the right lung—returned. The dreadful cough which bothered me day and night lasted six months and no one could help me. I tried three different patent medicines, without avail. I could scarcely eat anything and slept only a few hours each night.
"A friend told me to take Peruna. I did so and the second day my appetite had improved. I took a teaspoonful of Peruna every hour, day and night, for three weeks. Now I have taken five bottles. I can eat enough for two people and am able to sleep well.
"Whenever I meet a sick person, I advise him to take Peruna. I thank you a thousand times for your medicine, as it was the only remedy that saved me. We continue to keep it in our family."
—Leopold Brandl.

Dangerous Kidney Diseases Cured.

WHEN the kidneys become affected by catarrh, either from colds, overwork, or an extension of catarrh from some other organ, they fail to perform their normal functions.
It is the work of the kidneys to excrete from the blood many of the poisons which accumulate in the body.
If the kidneys fail in their work, the poisons accumulate to such an extent as to cause convulsions, which often prove fatal.
Peruna, by relieving the kidneys of their congested and catarrhal conditions, leaves them free to act in a normal manner.
It also strengthens the action of the heart, equalizing the circulation of the blood in all parts of the system.

A remedy that relieves catarrhal derangements of the kidneys should certainly be considered a household remedy. Peruna is such a remedy.
High Commendation For Pe-ru-na.
Mr. C. B. Fizer, Mt. Sterling, Ky., writes:
"I have suffered with kidney and bladder trouble for ten years past.
"Last March I commenced using your Peruna and continued for three months.
"I have not used it since, nor have I felt a pain.
"I believe that I am well and therefore give my highest commendation to the curative qualities of Peruna."
Neglected catarrh of the kidneys is apt to develop into Bright's Disease or diabetes, when a cure is almost an impossibility.

We have on file many testimonials like the ones given here.
We can give our readers only a slight glimpse of the vast array of unsolicited endorsements we are receiving every month.
No other physician in the world has received such a volume of enthusiastic letters of thanks as Dr. Hartman for Peruna.

LA CROSSE TO GET NEXT CONVENTION

MAYORS OF WISCONSIN WILL COME HERE NEXT TIME--

COUNCIL TAKES UP MANY MATTERS

LAST NIGHT

At the regular monthly meeting of the council last evening there were several important matters brought up. It was decided not to let the contract for the water extension this year as the bids were far above the estimate. A favorable report was made by Alderman Foerster upon the granting of a license to A. Remmelohm, 1631 Johnson street. He presented a petition signed by fifty-one residents asking that the license be granted. A remonstrance was made by Alderman Rehms but the license was granted by a vote of ten to six. The committee appointed by Mayor Torrance to represent La Crosse at the convention of the Wisconsin League of Municipalities, which is to be held in Ashland Aug. 24-26, consists of Aldermen Schulze and Hirschheimer. It is stated that the convention has been promised to La Crosse next year.

A resolution providing that all contracts for street paving, sewer extension be let before March 1 of each year, was adopted by the council.

A communication from the board of education was read by Alderman Emery asking that the board be allowed to let a contract for a program clock, telephone system, signal system and blackboards in the new high school. The board was instructed to let the contract.

A communication was read by Alderman Houska from the board of public works stating that bids for water extensions had been received, the lowest being $1,344.26 above the estimate. It was suggested by the alderman that the matter be laid over until the end of the year when the necessary amount of pipe be purchased by the city and the contract let next spring.

WE ARE STRONG ON WATCHES

In the spring we started selling a small-sized ladies' gold watch for $12.00 which met wonderful success. We are now offering two bargains in small-sized watches for ladies. The first is an O-size Waltham Jeweled movement, in a 14k gold hunting case, beautifully engraved and warranted for 20 years. Price $10.50. No other dealer has the same watch for less than $15.00. The second bargain is a small-sized Waltham Jeweled movement in a 10-year gold-filled hunting, or open face case, for $8.25, will cost $12.50 in other stores. We warrant all these movements for 5 years and will attend to all repairs, if any are necessary, free.

P. S. We have equally as good bargains in men's and boys' watches at about the same price. Come and see us.

THE WATCH HOUSE OF LA CROSSE

Saved Auto; Rewarded

ALTOONA, Wis., Aug. 11.—Engineer John Woods of the Omaha has been presented with a handsome gold watch and chain by Mrs. O. H. Ingram and Col. and Mrs. Coffin in acknowledgment of the prompt and intelligent action of Woods in averting a collision between his train and an automobile in which the donors were riding. Through the heedlessness of the chauffeur the automobile was thrown across the railroad track in front of a fast moving train. Woods saw the danger and threw on the emergency brake and succeeded in stopping the engine just a few inches from the auto.

M'GILLIVRAY WILL SPEAK HERE ON MONDAY

Senator James McGillivray of Black River Falls, who recently announced his support of Davidson for renomination, will speak on the exemption and the garnishee law at Woodman hall next Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

H. O'Connor, advance man for Senator McGillivray is now in the city making arrangements for the appearance of his chief here. Mr. McGillivray spoke at Eau Claire last night, and, it is announced, will continue his campaign against Lenroot throughout the state.

MADISON GOLFERS COME AUG. 18

On Aug. 18 a number of Madison golfers will come to La Crosse to compete for the Brittingham-Hixon cup. The matches will be held at the Schaghticoke Country club.

Andrew Lees, chairman of the committee on arrangements, has received word to this effect. The date which is satisfactory to both clubs has been definitely decided upon.

Every effort will be made by the La Crosse club to win the match for the Maple Bluff club is far in the lead in the contest for the trophy.

AT THE CHURCHES

The services conducted by the Seventh Day Adventists at their place of meeting on South Fourth street between Cass and Cameron avenue, are growing in interest. Dr. C. P. Farnsworth, medical superintendent of the Madison sanitarium, has consented to give a lecture in the church located as above on Sunday evening, Aug. 12. Dr. Farnsworth's long and successful experience assures us that much profitable instruction will be given on the very interesting topics of health and temperance, rational treatment and kindred themes. The sanitarium has prospered greatly under his management. This lecture will be entirely free and all are urged to come. Song service at 7:45 p. m.; lecture at 8; special music for the evening.

OUR GRAIN FREIGHT RATES

We are all interested in grain rates. The farmer is interested first. Then the middleman and the miller are interested. Finally the consumer is interested. The effect of the new Wisconsin freight rate laws upon the rates for shipping grain in this state is of apparent concern. The Milwaukee Free Press has a valuable contribution to information on the subject. It is as follows:

"The price of the grain raised in Wisconsin was affected by the ruling of the state railroad commission on Thursday. The difference per bushel is not large, but in the aggregate the amount of money saved to the farmers living along the lines affected will be large.

"The Wisconsin farmer sells his produce at the Milwaukee or Chicago price, less the cost of getting it to the lake port. If this cost is higher than it ought to be, the receipt of the man who raises the grain is just as much less as the cost is too high. A cent a bushel on wheat makes or breaks thousands of speculators every month of the year. A cent a bushel on a farmer's crop may mean shoes for the family for a whole year.

"Here is the first result to the general farming interests of the state of the contest that was waged through two sessions of the legislature for the establishment of a railroad commission, with power to determine the rates that may be charged by Wisconsin railroads. The law regarded by people expert in such matters, is the strongest and most comprehensive in the United States, and there is not much question about its ability to stand the scrutiny of the courts. The decisions of the commission may be changed by the court if rates made are found to be 'confiscatory.'

"The railroads have twenty days in which to appeal to the court, against the ruling of the commission; but they will probably accept the order without protest. There is not much doubt that they expect such rulings, and are prepared to make the best of them.

"It is a good law, that 'rate' law of 1905, and the state is fortunate in the commission appointed by Governor La Follette when the law went into effect. No Wisconsin law ever received more careful consideration and study. It is fair alike to the public and the railroads, just as the tax law of the previous session is. These two laws are the most important that have been made in many years. They are 'ends'; the primary election law is a means.

"The taxation law puts into the state treasury an increased railroad tax of six hundred thousand dollars and more every year; and this amount will increase as the value of railroad property of the state increases; and that is at a rapid rate. The railroad commission law is going to operate to the direct advantage of the people engaged in farming, in manufacture, in merchandizing, and to all consumers, in time. This is the result of 'the movement' up to date; this and some other things.

"It is slow work making and getting the benefit or remedial laws; but when the people are determined they can always get what they want.

"This ruling ought to be of advantage to the grain market of Milwaukee, and our commission traders believe it will be. This city has been discriminated against in rates on grain, in the past, but if the machinery of the state government can be used to conserve our own interests Milwaukee may become the great grainmarket that it once promised to be. There ought not to be a bushel of Wisconsin produce going to Chicago for shipment to the eastern market."

It is intimated that some of the Trouble Makers think of starting the trouble. It is a wise policy for one not to start anything one can't finish. Some people who might start trouble, if they would, are in a humor to keep trouble going until the big show is over.

A. R. Hall, it is said, selected Mr. Lenroot as republican gubernatorial candidate. That is one of the very best endorsements Mr. Lenroot has had.

CHILD LOST IN WOODS FOR A WEEK MAY BE DEAD

LAKE LINDEN, Mich., Aug. 11.—The 3-year-old son of John Karvala of Allouez has been missing for a week, and doubtless is lying dead in the woods near that place. Scarcely a trace has been found of the child, although searching parties have been out looking for him constantly since he was reported lost.

The case is one of the saddest ever chronicled in the copper country. The child left home more than a week ago with a number of other children. He was going to meet his father coming from work. About three miles from Allouez the little fellow became too tired to proceed and he sat down by the roadside to await the return of the others. It was a lonely place in the woods and quite dark. When the father and the other children reached the spot where the child had stopped, the latter was gone. Search was instituted, but was unavailing.

There are stories of wolves having been seen in the vicinity, but these are discredited. In any event, it is not considered possible the child could have survived so long, and the searchers are in hopes of finding only his dead body.

MARRIES AN ITALIAN NOBLEMAN

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 11.—Miss Virginia Randolph Bolling Hoge was married last night to Marchese Emilio San Germano of Rome, a member of the highest nobility of Italy. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Peyton Harrison Hoge, father of the bride. The wedding was the most aristocratic the south has witnessed for many seasons.

The marchese and his bride will leave tomorrow for a trip to New York and Saratoga. In ten days they will sail for Naples and proceed from there to Rome.

THE OLDEST KID IN TOWN

Minneapolis, Aug. 9.—(La Crosse Tribune Special Dispatch).—"Ma and I are coming to the encampment and ma wants work in a hotel or restaurant."

"P. S.—Ma has worked a lot in hotels and is a crackjack at that kind of work."

The above are extracts from a letter received at G. A. R. committee headquarters at Minneapolis yesterday from a man in Milwaukee who says "Ma" will take a place in a hotel or restaurant if one can be found for her.

"Get that job for Aiken," said the post commander. "Keep the wires hot until you land it. Ma don't need it, and it's Aiken's last chance." A score of 'vets' had been sitting around in gloomy foreboding until the story of Ma came to their ears. They brightened up some after reading it in The Tribune, and one of them tramp, tramp, tramped out to do the post commander's bidding.

You see, there was the encampment at Minneapolis next week, and Aiken was going. At least, he was going some. He began by admitting it, then he averred it, later he proclaimed it and finally he sang it. Well lubricated, his song was a terrible success. It was without melody and it lacked the approval of the academy of music, but it pleased Aiken immensely. He wrote it; alone and with unabated zeal he wrote it. It was a convenient sort of song, for it was entirely without tune. Anybody could sing it to any convulsion of sounds that pleased anybody best. Old Man Aiken apologized to too fastidious auditors, explaining that he had written the gem in rag time, and hence it could have no tune. Any doubt as to the accuracy of this statement was at once dissipated upon a demonstration. And as demonstration followed libation and libation followed demonstration with ever increasing rapidity, conviction that nothing could shake soon possessed the minds of the vets. What in the world were they going to do with Old Man Aiken? They MUST do something with Old Man Aiken.

"Fifty-nine years old," said Aiken proudly, yanking his Si Plunket hat a little lower over his right eye and executing a buck and wing that clattered and rattled distractingly. "Born in '47. Guess some of these alleged centerarians could learn a thing or two from Old Man Aiken, eh? Send up your clog dancers and I'll tire 'em out. Send up your bad men and I'll send 'em away talking to themselves. Send up your foot racers and I'll have 'em trying to guess which way I went."

The boys of 61 tried to talk Aiken out of it. No use. He WOULD sing that song in the streets of Minneapolis. "First verse," he said, "is fine. Goes like this:

OLD MAN AIKEN

The Youngest Old Soldier in La Crosse

We're away down the river from La Crosse, La Crosse.

We've come to see Minnie dear.

We're still alive from La Crosse, La Crosse, La Crosse.

And we hope to have a good time here.

La Crosse, La Crosse; La Crosse, La Crosse.

HURRAH FOR LA CROSSE!

"He'll break into jail, sure," tearfully surrendered the post commander. Aiken looked pityingly at the officer over his glasses. "He who hath not music in himself, is fit for strategems and crimes—" he shot at the unappreciative bluecoat. "Here is the strongest verse in the song:

YOUTHFULLY, TUNELESSLY

"La Crosse, La Crosse; La Crosse, La Crosse."

"Wouldn't it go better in chorus?" asked Fanny Fan as the triumphant Mr. Aiken executed the final vocal contortion supplemented with pedal evolutions of picturesque complexity. Mr. Aiken wouldn't stop now. He had gotten away from the scratch and he proposed to finish. He went through the rest of the song against time without pacemaker or wind shield. He climaxed beautifully in a medley of crackling consonants and musical hieroglyphics that left the enraptured veterans ensnared in confusion worse confounded.

BREAKING INTO JAIL

Watch the Twin City Newspapers to See if You See Anything Like This Next Week

And now, Minnie, Minnie, we are from La Crosse.

Don't take us for a ninny, ninny,

Just because we are from La Crosse.

La Crosse is short, short, short

Of sport, sport, sport, in La Crosse.

And we've come up here, Minnie dear, from La Crosse.

To learn something new from you Minnie dear.

And don't you try to do, do, do US from La Crosse.

For if you do we'll never forgive you, in La Crosse.

And you'll make us awful cross, awful cross.

From La Crosse.

HURRAY FOR LA CROSSE!

There was some talk of violence, but the weather eye of the intently oblivious Mr. Aiken tossed Fanny Fan a humorous wink. "I've created more consternation this morning than ever; Picket's outfit did with these according to Hoyle gentlemen. Me for a large time in Minneapolis an' I'll be got dinged if I don't sing it in the cars an' on the streets an' in the guardhouse if I land there. What's the use o' lettin' people think yer dead both ways from the diaphragm jes' because yer an old soldier?"

An A. D. T. boy interrupted with a telegram. It read:

"Post Commander So and So.—Too late. Ma got the job. We've arranged to have Dr. Dippy at the train in case the old fellow comes up. Cracked ice on the temples will help him, and try a gasoline poultice if he becomes violent." (Signed)

"THUS AND SO,

"Department Commander."

Mr. Aiken's eyes twinkled as he slipped out and started for his office.

"La Crosse, La Crosse, We're cross from La Crosse."

He sang it youthfully, mirthfully, tunelessly. He entered the elevator with the vigor of twenty years. He noted the jump in wheat that he had failed to catch on the rise, but that did not lessen the pure joy in his heart. "I'd rather be a crazy old fool on holidays than be a dead one," he informed himself.

FANNY FAN.

JUST LIFE

They Rocked the Boat

Last night as I lay dozing in a drowsy sort of dream

To the music of the lapping of the waves,

I heard a steamboat whistle in the distance, down the stream,

And a sighing sound like winds in ocean caves;

A flood of brilliant moonlight wooed the wavelets on the beach,

Carved the nodding willows sharp in silhouette,

And I faintly heard the nightbird—there was music in his screech—

And the hoot-owl seemed to softly call "forget."

And as I dreamed, my half-sized cot then suddenly took wing,

And out through endless space it seemed to fly—

Past the landscape, past the river, past the realm of man and king

Ever on, but hark! What is that thud and cry?

"Whoop, hurrah," a loud voice shouted, "come, get up, old man, and sing.

The gang's all up and howling, you can sleep tonight no more;"

I rubbed my eyes—'twas 2 a. m.—and instead of on the wing,

I found myself sprawled out upon the sandy houseboat floor.

The Mosquitoes

"It's the little things that count,"

A philosopher once said;

Perhaps the wise guy thought this up

One night at camp—in bed.

Well, the President can make better than 70 1/4 anyway.

Now that Rockefeller has stolen all the millions his descendants can use in a million years, John is willing to have the people smile on him.

TO CAPITALISTS AND INVESTORS

STATE OF WISCONSIN, LA Crosse County, City of La Crosse, ss.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the common council of the city of La Crosse, Wisconsin, on May 11th, 1906, which said resolution was adopted under authority given by ordinance No. 335 of said city of La Crosse, Wisconsin, the undersigned mayor and city clerk of the city of La Crosse, will receive proposals until the 16th day of August, 1906, at two o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the office of the city clerk of said city of La Crosse, for the purchase of certain special street improvement bonds of the city of La Crosse to the amount of two hundred ($200) dollars each, more or less, issued by the city of La Crosse for the purpose of macadamizing and constructing cement curbs and gutters and otherwise improving Jackson street, from West avenue to road to State Road coulee.

The bonds are signed by the mayor and countersigned by the clerk of the said city of La Crosse and bear the name of "Special Street Improvement Bond No. —." They are for the sum of two hundred dollars each, ten more or less in number and consecutively numbered. They bear interest at five per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, on the 15th day of February and the 15th day of August of each year, and the first installment of interest is payable on the 15th day of February, 1907, both principal and interest are payable at the office of the city treasurer, of the city of La Crosse.

The bonds are dated on the 15th day of August, 1906, and payable one each year, the first bond to be due and payable on the 15th day of August, 1907.

At the time and place above stated such sealed proposals for the purchase of said bonds will be opened and the issue of bonds awarded to the highest bidder for cash, provided that no bid at less than par will be accepted, and the right to reject any and all bids not deemed to be for the interest of the city is expressly reserved. The bonds shall be delivered to the purchaser at the city of La Crosse.

The said bonds will be sold together in one lot, or separately, as may be deemed most advantageous for said city according to the bids received. All bids should be endorsed "Proposals for Special Street Improvement Bonds," and addressed to the city clerk, La Crosse, Wisconsin. Dated, La Crosse, Wisconsin, Aug. 11th, 1906.

WILLIAM TORRANCE, Mayor of the City of La Crosse.

JOSEPH M. SIEGER, City Clerk.

CITY IMPROVEMENT NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that a contract has been let for brick paving and otherwise improving Caledonia street from St. James street to Logan street, and that the expense of such improvement chargeable to the real estate has been determined as to each parcel of said real estate and a statement of the same is on file with the city clerk. It is proposed to issue bonds chargeable only to the real estate to pay the special assessments and said bonds will be taken covering all of said assessments except in cases where the owners of property file with the city clerk, within thirty days after the date hereof, a written notice that they elect to pay the special assessment or a part thereof on their property, describing the same, on presentation of the certificates.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. P. H. Capellen entertained at a birthday party on Monday, Aug. 6, in honor of the eighth birthday of her daughter Ida. Various games were played on the lawn after which the guests were seated at two separate tables, each having a birthday cake set with eight pink candles as a center piece. The table decorations were in pink and white. As a souvenir each guest received a box of bon bons. The little hostess received many beautiful presents. Those presented were: Esther and Doris Wager, Charlotte and Helen Smith, Martha Merman, Marguerite and Katherine

NORTH SIDE BRIEFS

Miss Rose Colgan of Cranburn,
Can., where she is teaching, is spending a few weeks' vacation at the home of her brother, M. Colgan, 1202 Avon street. Mr. Colgan has not seen his sister since she was 6 years old.

William Colgan has accepted a position as brakeman on the Milwaukee road and has already made several successful trips.

Miss Ella Retzlaff of Kane street, is confined at the St. Francis hospital where she was operated upon for throat trouble a few days ago by Dr.
Dvorak. She is getting along very nicely.

George Petersen of upper Rose street has gone west to the harvest fields.

Mrs. Peter Johnson of Caledonia street, is chaperoning Misses Pearl Johnson, Clara and Agnes Ruud, Mabel Iverson and Mabel Sjolander at a week's camping across French lake.

Miss Kate Okre is visiting at Waukon, Ia. She accompanied a friend home who had been visiting here for some time.

Miss Cloie Evans has returned from a week's visit with relatives and friends at Lansing, Ia.

erson and Tillie Elstad of the La Crosse rubber mills, are going to Minneapolis for a few days at the grand encampment.

Thomas Devine has returned to his home on Caledonia street after a few days' visit at Minneapolis.

Martin Fuerhak of 1318 Caledonia street, who has been at Madison and Chicago for the last few months, has returned to his home.

Rev. C. W. Wentworth of the Caledonia Street Methodist Episcopal church who handed in his resignation
some time ago on account of the illness of his daughter, expects to leave about Aug. 21.

A new timetable will go into effect on the Dubuque division of the Milwaukee road at noon tomorrow. The time for the trains will be practically the same here although a few of the schedules have been changed a few minutes.

Hector Coster has returned from a four weeks' trip out west. He started a week ago from Glendale, Ore., where he spent a few days with relatives and friends.

North side is visiting here.

Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Welch and Mossholder and family are camping in their houseboat near bridge switch.

BASS VIOL AS COIN
BOX CAUSES BAD
DISCORD

FREELAND, Pa., Aug. 11.—Driven to frenzy by the discordant notes of a bass viol, Michael Hakalak, a member of a local orchestra, made a murderous assault on John Stefano, a brother musician. When arraigned before Magistrate Malley, Michael pleaded extraordinary provocation in extenuation of his act.

The orchestra, of which both men are members, was engaged to furnish music at a wedding. In obedience to a time honored custom they utilized the bass fiddle as a treasury to hold the receipts of the evening, silver offerings donated by the swains who danced to the music.

On this occasion the patriotic strains of the orchestra aroused the enthusiasm of and awakened the generosity of the dancers, and a continuous stream of silver flowed into the bass fiddle, and Hakalak deposed that the nerve wracking noise of the money laden fiddle was enough to drive
any sensible musician crazy.

He was compelled to furnish bail in the sum of $300 to keep the peace, and pay for the damage to the fiddle.

rified the pockets of his victim, taking therefrom the $2, all they contained. Leaving Boyd to his fate Freeman fled.

Boyd was later found by railroad men and the police hurried the injured man to the police station where medical attendance was summoned.
So serious were the injuries of the victim that Dr. Egan found it necessary to take nearly a hundred stitches in the wound of his scalp. He had been almost scalped, the scalp hanging loose in many places, being entirely severed from the skull. Boyd was in a serious condition, but later managed to give a description of Freeman, by which the man was run down by Detective Taylor and Sergeant Webber.

Freeman was bound over to circuit court this morning by Judge Brindley
and pleaded guilty before Judge Fruit to a charge of assault with intent to rob, and being armed with dangerous weapons.

Physicians are yet unable to exactly estimate the danger in which the victim of Freeman lies. His condition is still precarious at St. Francis hospital where he is confined.

To take almost all of the sting out of shopping, and to put an amazing amount of interest and zest into it, read and consider the ads before starting.

Store-management is something of a "black art," for printers' ink is usually black, and without it there is no
"store-management" — only "store-keeping."

SIRENS AND SONS.

Comptroller Herman A. Metz of New York city has presented the boys of Brooklyn with an entire block in that city to be used as an athletic field.

William Shakespeare has just died at Stratford-on-Avon. He was seventy-five years old, and it was not known that he ever put pen to paper in the way of writing plays.

George Leygues, the French minister of education, began life as a poet. He still retains his interest in literature, although he has been reproached in verse for preferring a political to a poetical career.

Jules G. Lombard, whose wonderful singing of wartime songs during the civil war led President Lincoln to declare "did more toward saving the Union than any division in the army,"
is still living in Chicago.

Sherring, the Marathon winner of the Greek Olympic games, was formerly a brakeman on the Grand Trunk railway. As a reward for his victory the Canadian government has appointed him inspector, with a salary of $150
a year.

The Nestor of rural journalism in Illinois is Colonel John S. Harper, now living in retirement at his home city of Leroy. He holds the remarkable record of having been the publisher of no less than 156 newspapers, a journalistic record which has no parallel.

John F. Stevens, the chief engineer of the Panama canal, is full of the American spirit of bustle. Hard work is his chief recreation, excepting golf, of which he is very fond. He has a keen sense of humor, and even in his formal reports there are flashes of wit.

Andrew L. Harris, the new governor of Ohio, entered office at a greater age than that of any man before him when he took the oath of office as governor.
The next oldest man was William A.
Allen, the Democrat chosen in 1873, who was sixty-six at that time. Mr. Harris will be seventy-one next fall.

T. P. O'Connor, M. P., the well known London journalist, and Edward Blake, M. P., of South Langford, former leader of the Canadian Liberal party, will attend the third biennial national convention of the United Irish League of America, which will assemble in Philadelphia on Oct. 2 and 3 next.

THINGS THEATRICAL.

May Buckley will be Kyrie Bellew's leading lady next season.

Frances Starr has been signed for next season by David Belasco.

May Irwin will appear next season
in a new play by George V. Hobart.

Margaret Dale Owen has signed for next season with Harry Corson Clarke.

George W. Lederer is now the manager of the Colonial theater in Chicago.

Max Figman is to be starred next season under the direction of John Cort.

Fred Frear, who is one of the comedians with "The Mayor of Tokyo," has appeared in all the Gilbert and Sullivan comic operas.

Joseph and William Winter Jefferson have in preparation a play called "Playing the Game," by Cleveland
Moffett and Hartley Davis.

GLEANINGS.

In Italy it is only incomes of $80 a year or less that are exempt from taxation. In Prussia the limit is $225.

At one time Belgium was the veritable apple kingdom, but the fecundity
of the Belgian apple tree has departed, and the quality of the fruit makes it fit only for stewing.

An international savings bank agreement has been entered into by France, Italy and Belgium, enabling depositors
in one country to have their accounts transferred to either of the others.

Cooly women act as railway porters
at Mandalay and carry heavy trunks on their heads from the train to the river steamer, a distance of about 200 yards, for a fee of a halfpenny per package.

When the telephone was new in Belgium people used to say "Allons!" to one another over the wire instead of "Hello!" However, the last two letters seemed to make trouble and have been generally dropped. The resulting word is "Allo!"

STATE LINES.

The first Oklahoma contained 3,000, 000 acres, but kept on growing until the new state embraces 41,000,000 acres.

It is said that Missouri manufactures more prison made goods of two or three classes than any state in the Union.
These are shoes, saddletrees and cheap clothing. Nearly 1,500 convicts are employed in these shops.

Colorado is one of the greatest fields for gold prospecting in the United States. Its 103,000 square miles of territory are dotted with mining camps,
from which radiate a constant stream
of prospectors in search of gold, silver,
copper, zinc and other ore.

TALES OF CITIES.

Weymouth, Mass., is the second oldest town in New England. It was settled in 1622, two years after the pilgrims landed at Plymouth rock.

If the sewers of New York city were placed end to end in a straight line
they would reach from there to Pike's peak, 1,710 miles, and the paved streets of the city would make a road along one side of them all the way.

Chicago's restaurant and luncheon rooms must henceforth pay the city a license fee of $25 a year. The fund thus created is to be used for the periodic inspection of their kitchens and to check the serving of foods that are spilled or unwholesome.

Wausau made a game fight for the game yesterday, but lost out in the eleventh inning owing to the remarkable work of Schneiber, the La Crosse pitcher.

In the ninth inning Lang relieved Gasper for the visitors.

By yesterday's victory La Crosse resumes her accustomed place at the head of the league, in spite of the several games it is claimed Freeport has appropriated to her per centage column without due authority.

The game yesterday was a fast contest and it was not until the eleventh inning that the champs were able to put down their able competitors.

N. Y. Icemen
are Released

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—It took the grand jury two hours yesterday to dismiss the charge that the price of ice was being kept at an exorbitant figure by a criminal conspiracy on the part of the "trust" and the wholesalers, and there will be no indictments. The grand jury may set forth its views concerning the consumption and supply of ice in its presentment, and if that is done it will show what District Jerome has contended since he began the investigation—that there will be an alarming shortage of ice for the rest of the summer.

Witnesses examined were: Wesley M. Oler, president of the American Ice company; Charles Mulford, president of the Glasco Ice company; George B. Schoonmaker, former president of the American Ice company, now a large stockholder in the Foster-Scott Ice company; William Hagedorn of Hagedorn Brothers, one of the largest independent companies; and Augustus M. Welch.

"There is a marked scarcity of ice," Mr. Oler said. "I am paying 70 cents a hundred pounds at my home at Larchmont."

As to the shortage the witnesses differed, but they agreed that it was at least 50 per cent of last year's crop, although some witnesses went as high as 66 2-3 per cent.

CONSUMPTION THREATENED.

C. Unger, 211 Maple St., Champaign, Ill., writes: "I was troubled with a hacking cough for a year and I thought I had consumption. I tried a great many remedies and was under the care of physicians for several months. I used one bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. It cured me, and I have not been troubled since." Sold by O. T. Erhart.

MARRIAGE STRANGELY
DELAYED

RED WING, Minn., Aug. 11.—The expected marriage of Miss Edla E. Hermanson to Bernard Sivertsen did not take place and has been indefinitely postponed. The wedding was to have been held last evening at 123 East Fifth street. About thirty-five people had been invited and arrangements had been made to have the festivities in part on the lawn, beneath the glow of Chinese lanterns. The guests arrived, as did also Rev. Mr. Dahlstrom, formerly of this city, now pastor of the Swedish Baptist church at Minneapolis.

The bridegroom greeted the guests cheerfully and then walked downtown on an errand, saying that he would be back in half an hour. At 8 o'clock Mr. Sivertsen had not returned.

Miss Hermanson fell in a faint and remained in a half-conscious condition the greater part of the night, her sympathizing friends doing all they could for the grief-stricken woman.

A search was made for Sivertsen, and he was finally found. He explained that when going downtown he took a glass of liquor for medical purposes, something which he had not done for several years. Of what happened after that time he had no recollection, he says, but he was seen about town.

Mr. Sivertsen returned to the house at a late hour and pleaded for forgiveness. Miss Hermanson is still in a precarious condition.

STORMS DO DAM-AGE THROUGH-OUT STATE

FOND DU LAC, Wis., Aug. 11.—Streets were flooded, awnings were torn from their fastenings, trees were blown down and much damage generally was caused by a terrific rain storm late yesterday afternoon, which was accompanied by hail, thunder and lightning. Crops throughout this section suffered from hail and wind.

Business Streets Flooded

JANESVILLE, Wis., Aug. 10.—This city was visited by a terrific rain storm last night, causing much damage by the washing out of streets. In one place 200 feet on Washington street was washed away for a depth of thirty feet and a width of seventy-five feet. The business streets were flooded.

The river has risen so much that factories depending on water power have been compelled to close. Reports from the country say that damage was done to the standing grain and that tobacco plants were washed out on the fields.

Storm at Kenosha

KENOSHA, Wis., Aug. 10.—One of the heaviest rain and electrical storms ever experienced in Kenosha passed over the city yesterday afternoon. The huge chimney of the Frost Manufacturing company was struck by lightning and demolished. A number of other cases were reported where chimneys on residences were knocked off. In two blocks along one of the principal streets seven trees were blown over. The storm lasted an hour.

New French Gun
not as Good

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 11.—A sample of the new French small arm, the improved Leibel rifle, has been received at the war department, and is being carefully examined by the experts.

The gun is about four inches longer than the new American army rifle, slightly smaller in caliber, and a pound or two heavier, but it does not appear that it surpasses the American arm in range, accuracy, or other valuable qualities. The magazine extends in a line with the barrel, like an American sporting rifle, and clips are not used, consequently it is much slower to load than our own gun; the center of gravity is continually shifting with the movement of the ammunition in the magazine, and there is danger that a shell in the magazine might be exploded by a sharp blow of the stock upon the ground, causing the pointed bullet of one shell to strike the primer of the one above it.

A queer, square ribbed bayonet, more than twenty inches long, fitted with a sword handle of aluminum, gives the French gun a formidable appearance, but our ordnance officers think better of our knife bayonet.

FIANCEE CARES
FOR COCKRAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 11.—A romance is being enacted at Lake Tahoe, where Bourke Cockran, the distinguished orator, lies seriously ill. He is under the care of Annie Ide, whose engagement to him was announced recently.

Cockran was not in the best of health when he went to Lake Tahoe, and he has developed a dangerous affection of the throat. As the eminent Irish-American is past 52, his resisting powers are not as great as formerly, and the attending physician fears complications.

Miss Ide's attendance at the side of the patient has been ceaseless and if he rallies from the attack it will be her ministrations more than anything else that will have caused the cure.

Dogs Drive her
From City

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 11.—Portland's population has been decreased by two and Seattle's increased by the same number, because the laws of Oregon do not provide for the killing of dogs that rush out and bite innocent bystanders. Mrs. J. S. Pinney and her son Albert have shaken the dust from their feet and gone back to their home in the Sound city, because Albert was bitten by an ugly dog.

Mrs. Pinney is emphatic in her denunciation of the laxity of Oregon laws, and waxed eloquent as she dilated on the laws of Seattle, and roundly condemned the way unmuzzled canines are allowed to roam the streets of Portland.

Mrs. Pinney and son were stopping at the Oregon hotel. The boy was standing in front of an adjoining building, when two large and ferocious canines of the mongrel breed attacked the youth until he was released by friendly spectators.

The boy was bitten about the arms and body, but his wounds are not considered serious. Nobody knows to whom the dogs belong, and nobody knows what became of them.

NO CRIME TO STEAL
IF STARVING

MARION, Ind., Aug. 11.—Justice of the Peace Phillips had a prisoner before him yesterday charged with a theft of which the evidence left no doubt. He listened to the testimony which convicted the thief, then searched his pockets, found a $5 bill, handed it to the prisoner, and told him to go, he was free.

Justice Phillips held that the law can afford to waive its right to retribution sometimes, and always should in the case of a man who stole only to appease the hunger of his wife and children. The prisoner, John Robinson, as a last resort, when his family had not seen food for two days, took two bushels of wheat from a farmer's barn. His wife, who was in court with six emaciated children, said her husband had committed the theft against his will and only because the little ones were starving.

An attorney, who volunteered for Robinson, read the bible's law in the case and impressed Justice Phillips more than the prosecuting attorney's array of witnesses and evidence. The attorney contended that Robinson's crime did not merit punishment and the justice, when he had done, was of the same opinion.

TROOPER SAYS HE WAS TOO DRUNK
TO DISOBEY

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Aug. 11.—Making the plea that he was too drunk to disobey orders intentionally, an enlisted man in the department of the east, of which Maj. Gen. Fred D. Grant is the commanding officer, has obtained a setting aside of his sentence by the general. This is the first time in the history of the army courts martial that the point has been raised as to the inability of a drunken man to form the intention to disobey orders wilfully.

The accused was found guilty of violating the twenty-first and sixty-second articles of war, and was sentenced to be dishonorably discharged, forfeiting all pay and allowances due him and to be confined at hard labor for six months. The soldier had pleaded guilty to disobedience of orders of a commissioned officer, and to the use of abusive language toward the latter, but he stated to the court that he was not so drunk he could not have formed the intention to disobey, and did not mean to be disrespectful or disobedient, and asked the court not to find him guilty of disobedience of orders.

Gen. Grant, in reviewing the case, points out that the soldier's statement is so inconsistent with his plea that the court should have directed a plea of not guilty to be entered and the case should have been tried on its merits. Accordingly, the sentence is disapproved, and the prisoner has been released from confinement and restored to duty.

TRIO OF NOTABLES
NEAR TO DEATH

SPRINGFIELD, O., Aug. 11.—Gov. Warfield of Maryland, Gov. Harris of Ohio and Gen. J. Warren Keifer missed death by two feet yesterday when an automobile in which they were riding was caught between the gates protecting the main track of the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis railway here.

The men jumped from the machine just as a limited train dashed by at the rate of fifty miles an hour, the automobile being less than a yard from the rails.

Gov. Warfield has been attending the reunion of the Ohio Maryland association here, the automobile ride being part of the entertainment in his honor. He left tonight for his own state.

Kentucky Mur-derer Caught

MIDDLESBORO, Ky., Aug. 11.—Frank Ball, who recently escaped jail at Richmond, Ky., was captured yesterday afternoon by Sheriff Rice Johnson and posse after a fight, which raged for one hour.

Ball some time ago killed Jack Bolen, a Middleboro barber. He broke jail and had been hiding in the mountains. Wednesday night Ball was located in a log cabin near Rose Hill, Va., and Sheriff Johnson and sixteen deputies started to capture him. Thursday morning Sheriff Johnson went to the cabin and demanded Ball's surrender. This he declined. Yesterday afternoon fire was opened on the cabin and after John Lee, one of Ball's men, had been killed, Ball surrendered. Ball will be taken to the Kentucky penitentiary at Frankfort to-night.

VIOLENCE THREATENED IN SPRINGFIELD LYNCH- ING CASE

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Aug. 11.—Hill Gooch, charged with murder in the first degree in being one of the leaders of a mob which hanged and burned Fred Coker, Horace Duncan, and Will Allen, negroes, in the public square on the night of April 14, was placed on trial today.

With the beginning of the trial came a renewal of threats made after the lynching while the grand jury was considering the case that if any of the supposed mob leaders were brought to trial public sentiment would be expressed by further violence. Outside the courthouse men gathered in little groups and whenever heard the sentiment always was the same—"God help the man that gives testimony in these cases."

With the actual calling of the first case threats of possible violence to jurors and witnesses were renewed. It is noticeable the crowd at the trial is not a barroom crowd. In fact, the lack of this element is commented on by the court officers.

"If anything breaks loose," said one of them during the noon recess, "it will be something that means business."

The state officers expected this condition of affairs. They say it is being done to intimidate men who have been summoned for duty on the jury. It was said early this afternoon that preparations are being made to watch closely the results of the talk on the streets and combat it with force if necessary.

"The state is prepared to meet any emergency that may arise," said Attorney Patterson tonight.

When Gooch's case was called, Attorney O. T. Hamlin pleaded guilty in behalf of his client and immediately began an argument on a motion calling on the state to indorse the names of witnesses on the indictment. Judge A. W. Lincoln sustained the motion, and the prosecuting attorney's office started on a day's work to furnish the defense the names of 527 witnesses who have been summoned by the state.

Assistant Attorney General Kennish declared that the state was willing to give the defense the names of the witnesses, but objected to a formal sustaining of the motion. He said it was contrary to the statutes.

Soon after the trial was begun J. L. Maxey, one of the regular panel of jurors, received word that his house, fifteen miles west of Springfield, had been struck by lightning, his two children killed, and the house destroyed. He was excused from further service.

EVERYTHING READY FOR REUNION OF VETERANS

Forman announcement that Minneapolis is prepared and awaiting the Grand Army National encampment next week has been made to the entire press of the country by the committee in charge. The following statement has been issued to the press and news associations for publication all over the United States and will be read with interest by La Crosse veterans:

"The several committees in charge of arrangements for the fortieth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, to be held in Minneapolis from Aug. 13 to 18, 1906, desire to announce that their plans are fully matured and that the city will be fully prepared to meet its full duty in connection with this great event.

"Soldiers' quarters in school buildings are ready for occupancy and the patriotic people of Minneapolis are ready to open their doors to receive all who come. The decoration of the city is fast assuming shape and the national colors will be shown in profusion. Plans for the great parade are practically completed, and correspondence indicates that there will be not less than 20,000 veterans in line. All of the downtown streets of the city have been repaved. This work, which ordinarily would have covered two or three seasons, has been crowded into a few months.

"Extra precautions have been taken to provide against delay in handling baggage and in annoyance in the validation of tickets. All in all, Minneapolis will present a splendid appearance to visitors, who will find every one of her citizens ready and anxious to render them any service within their power.

"Only one discordant note has been sounded through all the weeks of preparation, and that came from Washington, D. C., periodical, ostensibly devoted to the interests of the old soldiers. It assumed to exercise their host, not only before they have become the guests, but before they become knew anything about the plans which the committee has been formulating for months. The only apparent effect of this criticism has been to add to the burdens of the local committee by making it necessary for them to answer the many questions which were prompted by the articles."

MONTGOMERY WARD BUILD- ING TO BE BIGGEST HOTEL IN THE WORLD

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 11.—Chicago will have another of the finest hotels in the world if plans under consideration by the firm of Montgomery Ward & Co. are carried out. While nothing has been definitely decided as yet, there is a strong probability that the present Montgomery Ward structure on Michigan avenue is to be made into a large and costly hotel, the tentative scheme calling for an expenditure of about $6,000,000.

An elaborate exterior drawing of the suggested house has already been made for the firm by Architect Richard E. Schmidt, and the matter is now under consideration by the officers of the company. The company will commence building its new offices and warehouses at Chicago avenue and the river very shortly, and it is expected the firm will move its business to the new location about a year hence.

What use to make of the present building is a question now being considered by the firm, and the hotel idea is one receiving much attention.

"While it must be imagined that we have in the least decided to build a hotel, I will say that the matter is being considered," said Charles H. Thorne, treasurer of the Ward company, yesterday. "It has been something of a puzzle as to what to do with the present buildings and site when we move to our new offices, and that is a puzzle which has not yet been solved.

"We have had this exterior drawing made for the purpose of getting some idea as to what use the present building could be put and how it would work if a hotel was decided upon. As the drawing shows it is plain that our main building—the part with the tower—would remain much as it is outside, while a new structure would be built on the rest of the site. Definite decision is likely to be made within a few weeks."

The Schmidt plan shows a building of fourteen stories, occupying the entire frontage on Michigan avenue between Madison and Washington streets. The fire station at the corner of Washington street and Michigan avenue stands on Ward property, and there is a right to terminate the lease on short notice. If the hotel is built the fire station will have to move.

The hotel structure calls for a frontage of about 350 feet. It is computed that the structure would contain about 1,500 rooms. If built, the hotel will be on the most sumptuous and modern scale. There will be large ball rooms and a roof garden. It is estimated that the building would cost about $4,000,000, in addition to the $800,000 which the present structure cost. The furnishings, it is estimated, would cost about $2,000,000.

Sunday School Leaders Meet

WINONA LAKE, Ind., Aug. 11.—Representing a constituency of 155,000 Sunday schools in more than thirty different denominations, directed by 1,500,000 officers and teachers, and having a membership of 14,000,000, the International Sunday School association executive committee is in session here, and will continue its deliberations for several days.

The committee is made up of representative business and professional men from sixty-nine states, Canada, Mexico, Central and South America, Porto Rico, Cuba, and the islands of the sea. This committee, of which W. N. Hartshorn of Boston is chairman, meets annually to consider plans for the advancement of the organized Sunday school work of the continent, acting for the International Sunday School association in the interim between the triennial meetings of that body. While here the members of the committee are guests of the assembly.

The meeting of the committee promises to be the largest in point of numbers and the most important in the scope of its influence in the history of the international association. Grave and portentous problems will be presented for solution, and many great questions will receive careful consideration.

The chairman, Mr. Hartshorn, conducted the opening service this evening—an hour of praise, prayer and conference, preparatory to the great work which begins Thursday morning. An informal meeting of the central committee this morning was followed by sub-central committee meetings during the afternoon.

Among the great questions to be considered will be the adult bible class movement, in which Illinois has borne a most important part; the question of the relation of the negroes to the Sunday school movement; the subject of incorporation; the development of the primary department, and the leadership of the Sunday school work in all departments of progress.

Dog's Appendix is Removed

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Aug. 11.—For the first time in this city the operation of appendectomy was successfully performed on a dog at the Dog and Cat hospital, Diamond street, above Ninth. The little patient was Flinky the mascot of the torpedo boat Hopkins, now lying at League island. At 10 o'clock Flinky was placed upon the operating table, etherized, and in twenty minutes Dr. G. R. Hartman had removed the vermiform appendix, which had been the cause of much trouble to Flinky and great concern to the crew of the Hopkins, all of whom are devoted to the little skye terrier.

Flinky had been ill for a week. One of the surgeons at League island was consulted, and after a thorough examination diagnosed the case as appendicitis. All of Flinky's symptoms were similar to those of the fashionable folk who have that disease, and his removal to a hospital was advised. Accompanied by several of his loyal friends, the jack tars of the Hopkins, Flinky was taken to the hospital. The same preliminary preparation that bled undergird in the big hospitals was given Flinky.

FREE TO YOU—MY SISTER

Free to You and Every Sister Suffering From Women's Ailments.

I am a woman.
I know women's sufferings.
I have found the cure.
I will mail, free of any charge, my home treatment with full instructions to any sufferer from women's ailments. I want to tell all women about this cure—you, my reader, for yourself, your daughter, your mother, or your sister. I want to tell you how to cure yourselves at home without the help of a doctor. Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any doctor. I know that my home treatment is a safe and sure cure for Leucorrhoea or White Discharges, Ulceration, Displacement or Falling of the Womb, Profuse, Scanty or Painful Periods, Uterine or Ovarian Tumors or Growths; also pains in the head, back and bowels, bearing down feelings, nervousness, creeping feelings up the spine, melancholy, desire to cry, hot flashes, weariness, kidney and bladder troubles, where caused by weakness peculiar to our sex. I want to send you a complete ten days' treatment entirely free to move to you that you can cure yourself at home, easily, quickly and cheaply. Remember, that it will cost you nothing to give the cure a complete trial; and if you should wish to continue, it will cost you only about 12 cents a week, or less than two cents a day. It will not interfere with your work or occupation. Just send me your name and address, tell me how you suffer if you wish, and I will send you the treatment for your case, entirely free, in plain wrapper, by return mail. I will also send you free of cost, my book—"WOMAN'S OWN MEDICAL ADVISER," with explanatory illustrations showing why women suffer, and how they can easily cure themselves at home. Every woman should have it, and learn to think for herself. Then when the doctor says—"You must have an operation," you can decide for yourself. Thousands of women have cured themselves with my home treatment which speedily and effectually cures Leucorrhoea, Green Discharges and Painful or Irregular Menstruation in Young Ladies. Plumpness and health always result from its use. Wherever you live, I can refer you to ladies of your own locality who know exactly how to tell any sufferer that this Home Treatment really cures all women's diseases, and makes women well, strong, plump and robust. Just send me your address, and the free ten days' treatment is yours, also the book. Write today, as you may not see this offer again. Address MRS. M. SUMMERS, Box 427 - - - Notre Dame, Ind., U. S. ## NOTED BEGGER TO BEG $10,000

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Managers of the arrangements for the reception of William J. Bryan apparently are not so sure of getting the $10,000 required to pay the expense of the celebration. A meeting of the finance committee is to be held to discuss ways and means, and it was announced in a typewritten statement that "Col. Alex. Troop, chairman of the finance committee, has called to his aid one of the most noted money raisers in the country."

It was stated that this noted whipper-up of dollars was John C. Collins of New Haven, who was associated with the late Dwight L. Moody. After Mr. Collins' abilities as a money getter for "benevolent and educational purposes" had been praised, the statement added that the committee hoped "he would be able to beg $10,000 or $12,000 necessary to defray the expenses of the Bryan celebration."

The announcement of the employment of Mr. Collins to dig out subscriptions is a surprise, in view of the impressions given out by the committee during the last two weeks that the enthusiasm in every state in the union to take part in the reception and to contribute to the expense of it was so great that one of the chief difficulties of the finance committee would be to refuse money without hurting the feelings of those who offered it.

Wins Pardon by his Honesty

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 11.—John Miller is too honest to stay in the bridewell. Please pardon him.

This was the request made on May-or Dunne yesterday by Superintendent Andrew Lynch of the bridewell. The request was responded to promptly by the chief executive, and John Miller became a free man and was allowed to go home at 638 Campbell avenue, with a warning never to come back on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Miller is the only man ever sent to the bridewell who got a pardon because he was too honest to be kept among those who struggle through their sentences by working in the broom factory, on the stone pile, in the fields and in the tailor shop. As he donned his everyday clothes and listened to the parting words of advice from Superintendent Lynch, the latter considered whether Miller was not entitled to a medal of some kind for breaking the bridewell record.

Miller's inherent honesty broke out two days ago, when he found a woman's watch studded with diamonds on the pathway near the crematory and turned it over to the nearest guard.

The loss of the watch had caused tremendous turmoil in the bridewell and resulted in the searching of every prisoner. The little timepiece, however, could not be found, and Superintendent Lynch was worried, because the watch belonged to a visitor. When Miller found the watch Mr. Lynch berated a sign of relief, and as the owner did not offer any reward, he considered that Miller had earned his freedom.

In his letter to the mayor Superintendent Lynch said that three women

Spurns Assistance, Drowns

had received permission to go through the bridewell and the John Worth School. There are many light-fingered men and boys spending their summer vacation in the house of correction, and when Miss G. Soukop, 616 Throop street, one of the visitors, missed her watch Mr. Lynch felt that the reputation of the bridewell was at stake. The prisoners were searched, but the watch was not to be found.

The following day, when Miller was on his way to his daily grind at the crematory, he saw the gleam of the gold case and picked up the watch from the pathway. It evidently had been unhooked as the party of three was going to or returning from the crematory and its fall was unnoticed by the owner. Mr. Miller turned the watch over to the guard, who gave it to Mr. Lynch. He sent for Miss Soukop, who identified her property.

Mayor Dunne was entirely in sympathy with Mr. Lynch, and as he signed the pardon he told Pardon Clerk Merinbaum to notify the superintendent of the bridewell to release Miller at once.

"Miller was sent to the bridewell on a charge of disorderly conduct," said the mayor, "but he ought to be out working for himself because of his honesty. The bridewell is no place for him, and I hope he will never be sent there again."

Superintendent Lynch was delighted at finding an honest man among the prisoners.

STRIKE OF N. Y. TUGMEN MAY CAUSE A FAMINE

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—A strike of the railroad tugboat men of New York harbor that threatens to tie up the distribution of freight, and particularly of food products, on Manhattan island and Brooklyn went into effect yesterday.

The firemen, oilers, mates and deck hands of the tugs owned by the Lackawanna, the Jersey Central, the Lehigh Valley, the New York Central, the Erie and the Baltimore & Ohio—the boats that tow food products from the Jersey shore—have demanded an increase in wages of $5 and $10 a month. The companies having refused, most of the tugs of these roads were laid up.

It is said that roads other than the Central will await the result of the conference with the strikers before taking any action on their own account.

"We are willing to give them an increase of $5 a month and think they should be satisfied," said Mr. Pollock, manager of the freight and marine department of the Central. "A 10 per cent increase we consider a reasonable demand, but a 20 per cent increase we regard as out of the question."

"I want to make it plain that there will be no delay in handling such freight as foodstuffs. There are plenty of men to be had to make a prompt handling of this class of merchandise possible."

If the strike should be prolonged it would be serious, because a good percentage of the food supply of New York is lightered to the city and the railroad tugs do the towing.

An attempt made late today to adjust the differences failed. The representatives of the Central railroad of New Jersey, Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, Erie, Baltimore & Ohio, New York Central and Lehigh Valley railroads, which were most seriously affected by the strike, declined to accede to the demands of the striking crews for an increase in wages of $5 to $10 a month and declared that they will fill the places of the strikers.

The movement of freight from the terminals in New Jersey and Staten Island to New York city was badly crippled and many carloads were stalled in the yards on the west bank of the Hudson river. It is feared that if the strike continues there will be a heavy loss to shippers of fruits and vegetables and other perishable freight and much inconvenience to New Yorkers.

It was estimated that more than one-third of the freight arriving at the railroad terminals was moved across the harbor today, and that many carloads of perishable vegetables were stalled at least temporarily. In consequence the local markets were short of supplies. The general freight on the Central Railroad of New Jersey was tied up, but it was able to deliver its perishable freight after some delay.

The Baltimore & Ohio floats, which usually bring the freight from Staten Island, were tied up at the docks.

The New York Central kept only eight of its twenty tugs in operation. Officers of the company endeavored to secure the assistance of private towing companies, but their men refused to help move the floats.

The Erie railroad has some tugs in use and the marine service of the Lackawanna road was partly stopped.

Railroad freight agents said that if the strike continued the effect would soon become serious not only for New Yorkers but would prevent the interchange of freight between railroads.

Officials of the Central Railroad of New Jersey today offered to pay the strikers an increase of $5 a month. This was not accepted, as the mates are demanding $10.

COUNTY SOLONS AT DECORAH IN HOT FIGHT OVER VOTING MACHINES

DECORAH, Ia., Aug. 11.—Members of the board of supervisors of Winneshiek county are at loggerheads with the people, and from now until after the November elections the fight promises to become warm. At the June meeting of the board a contract was made with the United States Standard Voting Machine company of Rochester, N. Y., for twenty-seven voting machines at 650 each. The county is already heavily in debt, having completed a new courthouse two years ago at a cost of $150,000, and last year adding to this $15,000 for a cement arch bridge over the upper Iowa river in Decorah, besides petitioning the city council to have the streets around the courthouse square paved, the county's share being about $5,000. Several of the county funds are overdrawn and the purchase of the voting machines will bring the total interest-bearing debt nearly up to $200,000.

On the original motion to contract for the voting machines Chairman Nicholson and Commissioners Kubish and Wolfenberger voted yea and Commissioners Jewell and Hover nay, the motion being lost because it lacked a two-thirds vote of the board. On the following day, while Commissioner Jewell was absent, a motion to reconsider was passed and Supervisor Hover joined in voting to contract for the machines. When the action of the board became known indignation was expressed in some quarters. Meetings were held in seventeen of the twenty townships of the county, protesting against the purchase and appointing committees, who met in convention in Decorah Monday last and asked the board to rescind its action. Supervisor Jewell offered the resolution asked by the convention and Hover seconded it, but Nicholson, Kubish and Wolfenberger "stood pat" and the motion was lost. The convention thereupon appointed committees to solicit funds to begin injunction proceedings against the board restraining them from carrying out their part of the contract.

The "stand pat" members of the board are so angered over the matter that on Tuesday they ordered work stopped on the cement arch bridge. Supt. Chester is not losing any sleep about this, however, because his employers—the Stark Bridge company of Des Moines—have a valid contract for the erection of the bridge, and before legal notice can be served on him by the board he will have practically completed the bridge.

Charges of bad faith have been made by Chairman Nicholson against Supervisor Jewell. The former claims that the latter was in favor of the machines, and agreed to stand by the board if it voted to reconsider the purchase. On the other hand, Supervisor Hover declares that he was deceived by other members of the board into believing that he was merely voting to make a trial of the machines and no purchase was contemplated. Ugly intimations are rife in connection with the voting machine purchase proposition, but the fight is without its political significance, as Chairman Nicholson is said to have expected that he would be the republican candidate for representative from Winneshiek county at the coming election. His term as supervisor, as well as those of Hover and Wolfenberger, expires Jan. 1 next. Hover is serving his first term.

POLITICAL PATRIOTS SEEM TO BE SCARCE

NEW RICHMOND, Wis., Aug. 11.—Nothing better indicates the general condition of apathy prevailing in Northwestern Wisconsin politics, with the first trial of the new primary law less than a month in the future, than the fact that for many county offices in this (St. Croix) county there will be no opposition to some of the present incumbents, all of whom are republicans, either from republicans or democrats.

The time for filing nomination papers for the primary election, which occurs in September, expired on Saturday at midnight. The returns are now all in. For county clerk and county treasurer there is but one candidate for each place on the republican ticket as it will go before the voters at the primary. There are no candidates on the republican side for coroner and surveyor, while on the democratic ticket no one filed for clerk of the circuit court, register of deeds, treasurer or surveyor. The democrats had a mass county convention in Hudson some time ago, and at that time a full slate of candidates was selected to make the run before the primary, but four of the men chosen either declined or just let the thing go by default, failing to circulate the necessary nomination papers for signers.

Assemblyman I. L. Lenroot of Superior and John Strange of Oshkosh, candidates before the primary for the republican nomination for governor and lieutenant governor respectively, addressed a public meeting in this city this evening. They were accompanied by Col. John Hannan, private secretary of United States Senator La Follette. The discussions were limited to state issues solely. They also addressed meetings in Baldwin and Glenwood this morning and this afternoon.

HARTJES TO LEAVE PITTSBURG HOME

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 11.—Mrs. Augustus Martje and her two children, her father and mother, John S. Scott and wife, and their two unmarried daughters, Helen and Ida, will leave Pittsburgh forever, so soon as a decision is rendered to the Hartje divorce suit. They have not decided where to reside, but their choice has settled down to New York or Philadelphia. They don't intend to seek seclusion, as they are keeping the dressmakers busy. The change is made chiefly for the benefit of Mrs. Hartje's children, Mary Louise and Scott, who have been the victims of persecution by young and thoughtless playmates.

LITTLE MOTHER GETS NEW "HOPE HALL"

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Aug. 10.—It has at last been definitely learned where Hope Hall, Mrs. Maud Ballingbooth's home for discharged prisoners, is to be located. It is in Rockland county, midway between Sparkill and Orangeburg.

The property was formerly owned by Peter K. Knapp, now deceased, a close friend of Robert Bonner. Its last owner was a Wall street man of the name of Oberbrech, who went there for his health. He spent a large sum in improving the house and grounds, and the house became a stately mansion, practically situated in a large park.

It is high up on the side of South mountain, which marks the end of the Palisades. From the broad verandas a view can be had of the Ramapo mountains, fourteen miles away. Mr. Oberbrech sold the place because he wished to go to Europe. The purchase price was $15,000.

Residents of that section are much

GIRLS AND BOYS OF INDIANA SCHOOLS MUST NOT KISS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 11.—A kissless existence is guaranteed to every child attending school in Indiana.

The state board of health gives the guarantee. Not a kiss in the long catalogue of kisses will be countenanced in any school in the state when they open after vacation.

And, if the state board of health can do it, the war against kissing and kisses will be carried beyond the school. Every kiss in Indiana may be a stolen kiss after a while.

But in the schools there must be no kissing at all. This is the first communication the children will find on the notice boards of their schools:

"Do not kiss any one on the mouth or allow any one to do so to you."

The board of health hasn't decided whether it will be permissible to accept a kiss on the cheek or bestow one on a favorite eye. The problem is still under consideration and a blanket injunction covering every variety of kiss may be issued.

The board's anti-kissing edict applies to girls as rigorously as to boys. A girl who'd faint at the idea of a boy's kiss gives and accepts girls' kisses as a matter of course. That also is frowned upon. The Indiana school girl must avoid the kisses of her girl friends hereafter just as studiously as any other.

The board of health has studied the kiss, dissected, analyzed, and examined it under the microscope, and declared against it. Indiana will be better without it was the decision, and the board has started in on a campaign of eradication. Every teacher in the state will be instructed to enforce its abolition from school life and to punish severely the boy or girl who dares to kiss.

There are several other "don'ts" drawn up and waiting for the school children. Here are some of them:

"Do not put your fingers in your mouth."

"Do not wet your fingers in your mouth when turning leaves of books."

"Do not put pencils in your mouth or wet them with your lips."

"Do not hold money in your mouth."

"Do not put pins in your mouth."

"Do not swap apple cores, chewing gum or bean blowers."

Swapping apple cores and chewing gum is almost as bad as kissing, though not so prevalent, the board says. The health guardians hope that with kissing abolished in the schools and every child eating his own apple core and chewing his own gum there will be less tuberculosis to contend with.

GIRL IS MARKED BY BOLT OF LIGHTNING

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Aug. 11.—Struck by a bolt of lightning which seared her left side from shoulder to foot, tore her left shoe off and set her clothes on fire, Miss Elizabeth Walsh, a young woman from Troy, had a wonderful escape from death near here. Until she goes to her grave, however, she will be reminded daily of the terrible experience she underwent and survived, because the lightning struck her arm to her shoulder and then along her side to the floor. Her shirt waist and skirt burst into flames, and her left shoe was torn off and hurled almost across the room. With a gasp she fell unconscious at the feet of panic-stricken members of the Larkin family.

When their fright had subsided they rushed to the relief of the young woman. First they extinguished the flames, which threatened to complete the destruction the lightning had begun. Then one of the men hurried for a doctor. He and members of the Larkin family worked two hours before they succeeded in restoring Miss Walsh to consciousness. It was discovered that she soon would recover from the shock, but that nothing could

FACTS WHICH SHOULD IMPRESS ALL PERSONS ALIKE

Dr. Turbin is conceded to be in the first rank of Specialists in this country. Today he can with something like pardonable pride point to the vindication of his claim in the approval of the public. Point to a demonstration of his ability in the enormous patronage extended to him in this city. Point to a test of the truthfulness and genuineness of his course in the verdict of the people.

Dr. Turbin has today the largest medical practice in his line that was ever established in this city. He not only has it today, but will hold it in the future. His skillful, courteous, and successful treatment of patients, the knowledge of diseases in his specialty and his scientific mastery over them, is the basis of his success. He does not countenance any of the fake or fraudulent schemes presented by many specialists to obtain patronage, but conducts his business upon a strictly professional basis.

He is a regular graduate and holds diplomas from the best medical colleges and his record of medical skill in his specialty which is not to be surpassed by any other physician in the country.

His training, years of practice constant study of those special diseases peculiar to men and women, splendidly equip him for his work.

He wants every one suffering from any disease of that character to call upon him, assuring one and all of the best medical treatment, the most earnest interest, and of a determination to effect a cure in every case. Consultation is free at his office.

remove from her body the sinister red ring left an indelible red streak the length of her body. She is thankful, however, it spared her life and did not disfigure her face when it was playing such havoc.

Miss Walsh, a handsome young woman, is a guest in the home of J. J. Larkin, a short distance from town. When a violent thunder storm was at its height she stood in the parlor, with her left arm on the mantel. With keen interest she watched the down-pour of rain and the vivid play of lightning, little dreaming a bolt was gathering above to strike her down. Suddenly there was a terrific peal of thunder above her head. The lightning had struck the chimney against which the mantel upon which she was leaning was nailed.

It coursed down the chimney, took in the mantel and then seized upon her left arm. The electricity tore up streak which marked the course of the lightning bolt.

WOMEN THREATEN TO MOVE HOG RANCH

WINONA, Minn., Aug. 11.—The hog ranch yet promises to be a disturbing element in municipal affairs. For the first time in many years the city council chamber last night was invaded by a party of women who were there to enter a vigorous protest against the decision of the councilmen to permit the hog ranch to remain in its present location in the Fourth ward until May, 1907.

The women, together with some male supporters, stated that they would not consent to permit existing conditions to continue for that length of time, and threatened that if some action was not taken looking to the removal of what they claimed was a nuisance, they might take the matter into their own hands.

On the other hand, the views expressed by the women are said to be those of the extremists among the citizens of the ward. It is claimed that the bulk of the residents of the ward are satisfied that, in view of existing contracts, the council has done all that can be done. What action the women will take in attempting to carry out their threats is not known and is awaited with some trepidation.

MANIAC BATTLES IN BUGGY, WOUNDS SELF, ESCAPES

WASHINGTON, Pa., Aug. 11.—After a furious battle with an insane man along a country road, several miles southeast of here, Levi McMasters, a Waynesburg business man, succeeded in escaping uninjured, although his assailant emptied two revolvers at him. His aim, however, was so poor that he wounded both himself and McMasters's horse.

While driving between Carmichael's and Khedive, McMasters was accosted by the man, who rapidly emptied his first revolver. He then climbed into the buggy, and, covering McMasters with another revolver, ordered him to drive into the woods. Before his demand could be complied with the man began shooting at McMasters as he sat beside him. The two men grappled, and in the scuffle the man shot himself through the left hand. McMasters then succeeded in hurling him from the vehicle, and, whipping up his horse, escaped.

His assailant fired several shots, wounding the horse in a hind leg. A searching party failed to locate the man, who is a member of a gang of laborers employed in road construction in Greene county. He went crazy following a sunstroke.

Cheap Gas in Kansas City

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 11.—Kansas City yesterday won its long fight for cheap gas, when Mayor Bardsley promised to sign the so-called Fleming-Wilson natural gas ordinance, granting a franchise to a syndicate of Chicago capitalists and passed by the city council last night.

The franchise is to run for thirty years, and it provides that so long as the supply of natural gas is reasonably accessible it is to be furnished at 25 cents a thousand cubic feet for domestic consumption and at 10 cents for manufacturing purposes.

If the natural gas supply fails, then artificial gas is to be furnished at 75 cents a thousand cubic feet. The city may purchase the gas works at any time, providing the grantees receive their profits for ten years.

The Kansas City Gas company now

TAR AND FEATHERS

DULUTH, Minn., Aug. 11.—George Andrews, a photographer, was tarred and feathered here last night by three hundred citizens. Little girls visited his gallery frequently for some time, and this created considerable feeling. Last night a small girl came home with money she said the man had given her. The girl's mother told about the treatment the girl said she received, and had posters scattered over town, denouncing Andrews, but nothing was done for a time. Tonight Andrews was tarred and feathered and given until 6 a. m. to leave town.

La Crosse has made wonderful strides of progress in five years. It is chiefly because the "trade at home motto" has imbued the people. Our citizens have scoffed at the highly colored and luring advertisements of the mail order grifters, which kept La Crosse in the ranks of the villages for decades, and have wisely determined to support home manufacturers—

watchers appointed by the election commission, who forcibly prevented Sheriff Alexander Nesbitt last night from getting the ballot boxes which Judge Lindsey had ordered him to bring into court, were fined $25 each and their fines paid.

The ballot boxes wanted were delivered to the sheriff after Justice Bailey of the supreme court refused to interfere with the contest proceedings in the county court. The ballot boxes were opened and the ballots examined, apparent fraud in favor of corporations being shown.

Corporation attorneys announce they will let the case now on in the county court go to a decree, and then appeal to the supreme court to set aside the whole proceedings on the ground of no jurisdiction, and also prejudice because Judge Lindsey made bitter speeches against the proposed franchises before the election.

Justice Bailey's decision caused great surprise in view of former decisions of the supreme court all in favor of the corporations, and as soon as it was handed down a great crowd joined in a sprinting match for the county court for places of vantage.

When Judge Lindsey opened the county court it was with the knowledge that the supreme court had refused to interfere. He at once called before him the four men who are supposed to know the methods of the alleged election frauds, and who yesterday refused to be sworn. They in turn persisted in refusal to testify, and were fined and sent to jail until
the fine was paid.

The first witness was Mrs. Nancy Messitt, mother of Miss Minnie Mc-Keon, the missing gas company clerk who is said to have written 600 bogus tax receipts, which were afterwards
O. K'd by county officials who favored the corporation franchise proposition. Mrs. Messitt declined to tell the whereabouts of her daughter, and was excused.

The ballot boxes containing alleged evidence of fraud were then ordered into court. The shotgun guard placed over them by the election commissioner last night was not in evidence today, and Sheriff Nesbitt secured them without the posse ordered by Judge Lindsey as an emergency.

The boxes opened showed that twenty-four votes against the gas franchise had seven votes against the tramway franchise had not been returned by the judges of election.
More boxes will be opened tomorrow.

AXE BLOW, BY ACCI- DENT FRACTURES BOY'S SKULL

ROCKVILLE CENTER, L. I.,
Aug. 10.—Norman Lopez, the 8 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lopez of Observer street, is in the Nassau hospital, Mineola, in a serious condition, and fears are entertained for his recovery.

Mr. Josephus, a neighbor of the Lopez family, recently purchased the old Ives property on the Southern boulevard, and he has had a man engaged for some time in cutting down trees and shrubbery on the place.
Harvey Scott was thus engaged when the Lopez boy climbed the fence and played around the man while he was at work. Several times Scott told the boy to go home, as he might get in the way, but the little fellow insisted upon remaining.

As Scott was hewing down a young tree the boy jumped in the way of the descending ax, which struck him fairly upon the top of the head, inflicting a wound as broad as the blade of the ax, fracturing the skull so that the brain was visible.

Messengers were immediately sent for physicians. Dr. Frank T. Delano was the first to respond and he immediately procured a carriage and had the little fellow conveyed to the hospital, where everything is being done to save him, but with slight hopes of that result.

Although no blame is attached to Scott, he was later arrested and released under $1,000 bail.

REVOLUTIONARY MEMBER OF DOUMA FACES DEATH

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 11.—M.
Onipko, a peasant member of the late parliament, who was captured red-handed at Cronstadt after the mutiny
there, will be tried, it is semi-officially announced, according to the rules of war, for inciting and participating in an armed revolt, the penalty for which is death. The authorities are convinced that they have a good case against him and hope that it will involve several other prominent extremists in the late parliament to such an extent as to prevent their re-election.

The ministry already is beginning a far-reaching campaign for the election of a more tractable parliament in December. The ministers insist on a program of definite reforms, and the nomination of candidates who will represent these. They disclaim all intention of attempting to throttle public sentiment, but it is noticeable that their first step was taken through the police, who were asked to report on all candidates for seats.

The session of the cabinet today was devoted to famine relief. It was decided to recommend to the emperor a credit of $27,500,000 in addition to the $7,500,000 voted by parliament.

Twenty-five million dollars will be used to provide food and employment to keep the stricken population from starvation, and the remainder for the purchase of seed.

The Official Telegraph Agency tonight reports the formation at Yekaterinoslav of a reactionary organization whose purpose is to exact life for life for every official killed by the revolutionists. The murder of the ex-deputy, Hertzenstein, is an example of this procedure.

Premier Stolypin today went to Peterhof to secure the emperor's approval of the appointments of Prince Vassilchikoff as minister of agriculture, M. Filossoff as minister of commerce and M. Iswolsky, brother of the foreign minister, as procurator
general of the holy synod.

The peasants of the village of Gravoff have beaten almost to death M.
Stefanduk, who was a member of the outlawed parliament and who could not explain to their satisfaction why he returned home without obtaining the land and liberty he had promised them.

The Bourse Gazette announces that Papus, the spiritualist who is said to have had great influence over the emperor, has gone abroad. It is said he gave fifty seances to the emperor, receiving $25,000 as compensation.

The Novoe Vremya pretends to see in the international American conference at Rio de Janeiro a scheme of the United States to establish hegemony in America. The paper raises the cry of "The American peril," and says that "the time is not distant when the Slav, German and Latin races of Europe will be compelled to unite for self-protection against the combination of greater America, greater Britain and greater Japan."

CHANGES IN FACULTY

MADISON, Wis., Aug. 11.—At the last meeting of the regents of the University of Wisconsin a number of changes in the faculty were made, by the appointment of instructors and assistants in various departments. Three new assistants in physics were named:

Karl O. Burrer of Granville, O.; Thos.
L. Bewick, Madison, Wis.; and Benjamin W. Bridgeman, Darlington, Wis. A. S. McDaniel of Bellevue college, Nebraska, succeeds E. B.
Hitchins, resigned, as chemistry instructor. R. B. Macnish, a former assistant in romance languages, is succeeded by Douglas Macduff. Newton E. Weyson is the new assistant in bacteriology.

To fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Prof. Hobbs in the geology department, the following changes were made: W. O. Hotchkiss is reappointed instructor in petrography, to devote half his time to this work and half to the Wisconsin Geological Survey, on which he has been appointed economic geologist;
G. W. Corey, assistant in geology, was made assistant in mineralogy.

In the engineering college the following appointments were made: W.
E. Wickenden succeeds F. J. Petura, resigned, as instructor in electrical engineering. G. G. Post is succeeded by Lewis Fussell as assistant in electrical engineering. F. W. Lawrence was made assistant in hydraulic engineering.

GIRL PRESSED HIS TROUSERS; THEY WERE STOLEN

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Aug. 11.—The fondness of Walter Nelson, an iron worker, of 95 Hamilton avenue, for a sharp crease in his trousers was responsible for his appearance before Magistrate Tighe, at the Butler street court, as complainant in a case against Ralph Satar, 36 years old, a Norwegian, who said that he had no home. Nelson's sweetheart, Miss Olga Hanson, 26 years old, a pretty young woman who lives at the same address, was also called in to tell the court how much Nelson liked to have his suits pressed, and it was on her evidence that Slater was held under $200 bail for the special sessions on a charge of petit larceny.

Nelson had an appointment and in order to look spick and span hurriedly took his suit to Miss Hanson's flat on the floor below and asked her to put forth special efforts with an iron, so that his creases would put to blush the other youths who would be present. The young woman signified her willingness. She had just finished one leg of the trousers when Slater came in, as he said, for a little conversationalism.

They chatted awhile and the hot iron flew over the other leg of the trousers, until finally the pressing of the suit left nothing to be desired.
The young woman carried the iron into the next room to place it on the gas stove, and when she returned the suit was missing, and so, she says, was Slater. The newly pressed suit was later found in a pawnshop, and at the arraignment today Slater admitted that he had taken it.

much of it is paid out in penalties for

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

The first outward sign of Contagious Blood Poison is a small sore or blister. As the poisonous virus becomes more firmly entrenched in the blood a red eruption appears on the body, the mouth and throat ulcerate, the hair begins to come out, glands in the neck and groin swell, copper colored spots appear on the breast, back, etc., and the unfortunate victim finds himself diseased from head to foot. Mercury and potash do not cure Contagious Blood Poison; they shut the disease up in the system and remove the outward symptoms for awhile, but when the treatment is left off the trouble returns. Then the system being weakened from the action of these strong minerals the disease makes more rapid headway than before. S. S. S. is the antidote for Contagious Blood Poison. It cures permanently and certainly by going down into the blood and removing every vestige of the virus. It is free from all minerals, and while purifying the blood it builds up the entire system by its fine tonic effects. S. S. S. destroys every particle of the poison and removes all danger of transmitting it to others. S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison because it is a perfect blood purifier.—Book with instructions for self treatment and any medical advice free.
